

LISA SPERL MSc

Occupational therapist in research und practice

ABOUT ME

lisa.sperl@meduniwien.ac.at

Nationality: Austria

EXTRACURRICULAR

Member of the Austrian Association of Occupational Science

Member of the Austrian Society for Rheumatological Health Professions (ÖGRG)

Member of the Ergotherapie-Austria professional association

Member of the EULAR Knowledge Translation Committee

Professional experience in science and research

Since September 2022	Data Analyst at the Institute for Outcomes Research, led by Univ. -Prof. Dr. Tanja Stamm, Medical University Vienna and the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Arthritis and Rehabilitation
January 2022- September 2022	Documentation Assistant at the Institute for Outcomes Research, led by Univ. -Prof. Dr. Tanja Stamm, Medical University Vienna and the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Arthritis and Rehabilitation
June 2021- December 2021	Study Nurse at the Institute for Outcomes Research, led by Univ. -Prof. Dr. Tanja Stamm, Medical University Vienna and the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Rehabilitation Research

Professional experience and internships as an occupational therapist

2017 - 2021	Occupational therapist at the neurological rehabilitation center Rosenhügel (NRZ) 1130 Wien
Internships	Orthopedics: Accident hospital Lorenz Böhler (1120 Wien) Pediatrics: Alaska Pediatric Therapy (Anchorage, Alaska, USA) Neurology: Neurological rehabilitation center Rosenhügel (1130 Wien) Psychiatry: LKH Schärding Mental Health Day Clinic (4780 Schärding) Geriatrics: Barmherzige Schwestern Ried (4910 Ried im Innkreis)

EDUCATION

Since October 2022	Medical University Vienna PhD in Public Health
2020-2022	Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences European Master of Science in Occupational Therapy MSc
2014-2017	IMC University of Applied Sciences Krems Occupational Therapy Bachelor of Science in Health Studies BSc